BOARD ACTIVITY REPORT
PURSUANT TO THE COMMUNIQUE SERIAL II. NO.14.1*1. INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENTS

The global aviation sector, negatively affected by terrorist incidents in 2016, began to recover in 2017 following a decrease in safety concern, with passenger demand increase. Turkish Airlines closed the year of 2017 with record EBITDAR figure, indicating cash generating ability, and set successive load factor record within the year thanks to positive demand environment and initiatives of Turkish Airlines about cost-cutting program and active capacity management. These positive developments in 2017 affected the first half of 2018 positively. Global passenger demand grew 6.8% year on year terms during the first five months* of 2018 and it is expected to continue on this growth by the end of 2018. Besides this strong demand pick up, global aviation capacity and load factor increased 6.0% and 0.6 points respectively. Compared to the global aviation sector, during the first five months Turkish Airlines performed better; passenger demand increased by 17.1%, capacity increased by 10.3% and load factor increased by 4.7 points. During the first half of 2018, the number of passengers carried by Turkish Airlines increased by 17.8%, reaching 36 million passengers.

Turkish Airlines continues its success on passenger side in cargo transportation. The Incorporation has achieved to maintain its strong growth trend in the cargo market over the last decade and consequently, cargo carried increased by 27.7% and cargo revenue increased by 35.2%. Turkish Airlines increases the importance of cargo transportation each passing day and plans to expand the cargo fleet in proportionate to passenger fleet. Accordingly, Turkish Airlines takes firm steps forward to be one of the largest air cargo carries in the world by increasing its share of the world air cargo market with the addition of new cargo aircraft to the existing fleet.

Turkish Airlines continued its impressive communication performance in 2018 without slowing down as in 2017. Sponsorship in the international sports organizations, corporate social responsibility projects and other various sponsorships support Turkish Airlines brand image as well as make huge contribution to the development of tourism in Turkey by accurate advertisement of Turkey. Turkish Airlines, titled as airline, which flies to the most countries in the world, underlines that it will maintain its title in the forthcoming years by open and planned to open new destinations. Turkish Airlines' wide flight network and young fleet structure will become stronger and provide significant advantage in intensely competitive aviation sector.

*Since IATA data is not published for the month of June, comparison is being done in terms of first five months data.

Negotiations with SATS Ltd (SATS)

Previously, we have informed that Turkish Airlines has entered into a memorandum of agreement (MOA) with SATS Investments Pte. Ltd. ("SIPL"), a subsidiary of SATS Ltd (SATS), regarding the procurement of catering services at Istanbul New Airport, applicable upon transfer of Turkish Airlines' operations thereto and subsequently that an additional contract has been signed between the parties, extending the period of the aforementioned MOA.

Following our discussions with SIPL and in accordance with the decision of the Board, the parties would like to announce that the parties have mutually agreed to terminate the MOA.

11. INVESTMENTS, INCENTIVES AND INVESTMENT POLICIES

Within the scope of “2009-2023 Fleet Projection”, “2012-2020 Fleet Plan” and “2019-2023 White Body Fleet Plan” confirmed by the Board, number of aircraft and delivery years are stated on the following table.

On March 9, 2018, in order to insure the need for wide body aircraft, the Incorporation has decided to purchase 50 firm and 10 optional aircraft, a total of 60 wide body aircraft to be delivered between 2019 and 2023. According to this, a total of 30 B787-9 aircraft, of which 25 firm and 5 optional, will be purchased from Boeing and a total of 30 A350-900 aircraft, of which 25 firm and 5 optional will be purchased from Boeing.

By the end of June 2018, the operation has been carried out by 92 double-aisle passenger aircraft, 215 single-aisle passenger aircraft and 18 cargo aircraft. Double-aisle aircraft constitute about 28 % of the total number of aircraft in fleet. Due to the effect of stage length and seat capacity, contribution of wide body aircraft to the production is more than 50%.

Decree on State Aids for Investments

The incorporation had completed 13,267,897,367 TRY in total value of aircraft investments since 31.05.2010 in scope of the Investment Incentive Certificate obtained within the framework of “Decree on State Aids for Investments” put to force by the Cabinet on 14.07.2009. According to the incentive certificate, a 50% discounted corporate tax will be applied to the income generated by the related aircraft until the total amount of contributions invested of 20% of total investment is reached.

The incorporation has decided to terminate the aforementioned certificate and apply for a new certificate for the aircraft investment that is planned to be made as of 01.12.2014 within the framework of “Cabinet Decree on State Aids for Investments” put to force on 15.06.2012. Pursuant to new certificate, The incorporation had completed 16,968,269,342 TRY in total value of aircraft investments. According to this new certificate, a 50% discounted corporate tax will be applied to the income generated by the related aircraft, until this amount reaches 15% of total investment.

The contribution amount of investment which is not utilizable when there is no tax base, is transferrable by indexing with revaluation rate.

12. RISK MANAGEMENT MECHANISM

To be able to control the potential risks in the aviation sector, where competition is high, and to ensure sustainable growth, it is crucial for the Company to have an effective risk management strategy. In order to ensure reasonable level of assurance against possible shocks by reducing fluctuations in fuel prices, interest rates, cash flow and foreign exchange rates and counterparty risk to minimum levels within the scope of our Company; a Treasury and Risk Management Committee, chaired by Chief Financial Officer and composed of Senior Vice President (Finance), Senior Vice President (Accounting and Financial Control), Manager of Financial Risk Management, Treasury Manager, General Finance Manager, Budget Manager, Financial Control Manager, Financial Analysis Manager and Investor Relations Manager – was established under the coordination of the Financial Risk Management Department. The Committee sets the Financial Risk Management strategy of the Company and carries out necessary activities in relation to management of any Financial Risks to which the Company is or might be exposed.

In this context, the number of instruments used for years has been increased within the scope of the acquired market experience, which started as of June 2009, primarily for the hedging of fuel prices among the financial risks to which the Company has been exposed and our hedging process continues in line with a constantly developing, dynamic strategy. Currently, Swap and option based structures are used to hedge fuel price risks.

In order to minimize the impact of exchange rate fluctuations, regarded as a major risk element in view of the Company’s field of activity and to keep the risks that may arise from potential differences between forecasted and realized revenues and expenses under control, a proactive exchange rate policy is implemented based primarily on natural risk management for exchange rates, by also taking into account the evaluation of the available cash portfolio. In addition, a corporate strategy was launched in June 2013 in order to use derivative transactions to minimize any financial risks that may arise from potential negative fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

In this context, EUR, US Dollar and TRY currency positions anticipated for each month are established based on the Company’s monthly updated forward-looking cash flow forecast, and accordingly, forward contracts are used with the aim of selling EUR at a fixed rate and buying USD and TRY within the next 24-month period for a portion of these currency positions. With the changes in early 2015, we have adopted a dynamic strategy involving option-based collars and forward contracts to manage USD/EUR open positions by selling EUR; and forward contracts are also used to hedge TRY open positions. On the other hand, in order to reduce the need for use of derivative products, USD is used as the pricing currency for international flights originated from domestic airports as of May 2015 instead of EUR as a natural hedge against currency risk.

BOARD OPERATIONAL REPORT

Financial risks arising from the changes in interest rates may have impacts on the Company due to the nature of business and the industry environment. In order to manage the interest rate risk, the Company regularly monitors and analyzes interest rate markets, determines the structure of corporate indebtedness, conducts interest rate sensitivity and weighted average maturity analyses and keeps track of potential cost variations due to changes in interest rates. In order to manage the interest rate risk; derivative instruments such as interest rate swaps and options are used.

13. PROJECTIONS ABOUT THE COMPANY

The Incorporation has decided to start operating scheduled flights, based on aircraft availability, to the cities Abha of Saudi Arabia, Juba of South Sudan, Aswan and Luxor of Egypt, Krasnodar, Voronezh, Samara and Makhachkala of Russia, Krakow of Poland, La Coruna of Spain, Lenkeran of Azerbaijan, Luanda of Angola, Mexico City and Cancun of Mexico, Nantes of France, Denpasar of Indonesia, Banjul, the capital of Gambiya, Moroni, the capital of Comoros, Marakesh of Morocco, Palermo of Italy, Rovaniemi of Finland, Port Sudan of Sudan, Sharjah of United Arab Emirates, Newark of United States of America.

Flying to more countries than any other airline in the world, the Incorporation aims to be among the leading airlines in the world by maintaining its steady growth in parallel to the growth in number of transfer passengers by providing wide-body fleet investments, capacity increases mainly in long-range flights and new routes. In addition, the Incorporation is targeting to increase unit revenue by increasing passenger revenue of Business Class through the improvement of service quality and the expansion of cargo operations.
